

Chief Agent Craig Williams
Oklahoma Bureau of Narcotics

Craig Williams currently oversees the Diversion Division. He has previously supervised training and operations, as well as professional standards.

Williams attended Southeastern Oklahoma State University, as a Parsons Scholar, where he earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Criminal Justice. He spent 10 years working for the Ardmore Police Department before accepting a position with OBN. He has worked in a variety of assignments ranging from patrol, special response team leader, detective, narcotics investigator, and field training officer.

Williams holds an Advanced Law Enforcement Certification from the Council on Law Enforcement Education and Training. He is a Past President of the Association of Oklahoma Narcotic Enforcers. He instructs on a variety of topics including use of force, firearms, clandestine laboratory investigation, officer safety, and human trafficking.

Williams is active in several professional associations including the Association of Oklahoma Narcotic Enforcers, the National Association of Drug Diversion Investigators, and the Oklahoma Association of Chiefs of Police.