

Ghazi M. Rayan, M.D.

Orthopedic and hand surgeon

Oklahoma doctor, Ghazi M. Rayan, M.D., is an orthopedic and hand surgeon. He is also a clinical professor of orthopedic surgery, adjunct professor of anatomy and the director of the Oklahoma Hand Fellowship Program at INTEGRIS Baptist Medical Center in Oklahoma City.

Dr. Rayan is an honor graduate of Alexandria University Medical School in Egypt. He completed a general surgery internship at the University of Maryland / South Baltimore General Hospital, an orthopedic surgery residency at Union Memorial / Johns Hopkins Hospital, and an upper extremity hand and microsurgery fellowship at the Raymond Curtis Hand Center in Baltimore, Md. He is board certified in orthopedic surgery and hand surgery, has more than a quarter century of experience. He is a member of 25 Surgical Societies, gave 245 presentations to domestic, national and international groups, published 175 scientific articles, wrote 31 book chapters and edited seven books.